Plan For 6,500 New Homes Here

Hog Ranchers Will Appear On Thursday, August 16, For Arraignment In Judge Rapsey's Justice Court

The 40 odd hog ranchers of the Colma area, against whom complaints of operating without commercial licenses were filed by the county district attorney's office in the court of Justice of the Peace R. A. Rapsey two weeks ago, will appear before Judge Rapsey in South San Francisco, Thursday, August 16, at 10 a. m. for arraignment.

Most of the ranchers were arrested late last week on warrants issued by Judge Rapsey and have been released on bail.

One of the ranchers, Thomas Callan of Colma, was released by Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt at Redwood City, Thursday night, August 2, on his own recognizance. Arrested by Constable George Krehl, Callan was taken to the county jail, where he is said to have flatly refused to put up bail.

Deputy sheriffs then contacted Judge McNutt, who ordered Callan's release on his own recognizance. Although the misdemeanor case against the Colma rancher is not a superior court case, and will be tried in the justice of the peace court, most Redwood City lawyers agreed that McNutt had a right to free Callan, although the procedure was unusual.

Filing of the complaints against the 40 ranchers last week climaxed many months attempts of county officials to remedy alleged unsanitary conditions at the ranches which resulted in many complaints of pollution of Colma creek by residents of South San Francisco and other residential areas along the creek's banks.

POLICE FIND LOST BICYCLE

Summoned to 212 School street, at 12:55 a. m. Thursday, August 2, by a phone call, Officer Roland Petrocchi and Dean Wood picked up a "Blue Western Flyer" bicycle, that was left against a building at that address, and brought it to the local station. The bicycle was locked and in a damaged condition.

Thursday afternoon, Howard McDonald of Railroad avenue, identified the bicycle as one belonging to his son and said the boy had left it at the School street address.

Darlene La Rosa Falls From Cliff

Four year old Darlene La Rosa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antone T. La Rosa, of 322 West Lake avenue, sustained a badly bruised head in a fall from a cliff at the San Francisco golf links just before noon Wednesday, August 1.

Taken to Alemany hospital by Sergeant Ricco Benedetti of the local police department, she was found to have suffered no internal injuries and was released from the hospital an hour later and brought home by her father.

Paper Bag Shortage Hits Local Stores

Shortage of paper bags has become so acute in Daly City, that several local grocers this week appealed to housewives to bring any used bags of any size or description to them.

These grocers point out that it is next to impossible to secure unused paper bags at the present time. Some few grocers purchased a large supply some time ago, and are using them during the present emergency, but most local merchants have been caught short.

So, pick up your old bags Mrs. Daly City housewife—and take them to the corner grocery. Your favorite merchant will appreciate your thoughtfulness.

They Even Win When Fishing

Several members of Frank's Union "76" baseball team went fishing at Princeton Monday, August 6 bringing back the "magnificent" sum of 52 fish including rock cod and bass.

The boys were accompanied by Albert Rehe.

Fog Lights Stolen From Parked Car

Theft of two chrome fog lights and a chrome hub cap from his 1939 Chevrolet coupe some time during the night of July 31, was reported to local police by Harry Nolan of 21 Santa Cruz avenue the next morning. Nolan said he left the car parked in front of his home the night before, and when he went to get it, the fog lights and hub cap were gone.

Local police advised him to report his loss to the Ingleside station since that portion of Santa Cruz avenue is across the county line in San Francisco.

Mother Files Charges Following Candy Store Fracas

A fracas in the Daly City Candy Store shortly after 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, August 5, between the proprietor, George Tsamteris and two 15 year old boys, one from San Francisco, the other from Daly City, resulted in the San Francisco boy being taken to Alemany hospital where five stitches were required to close a cut above his left eye, and a warrant for Tsamteris's arrest being sworn out by the lad's mother.

Tsamteris told local police that the boys were throwing sugar and napkins around in his store, and were carving their initials on the tables, when he asked them to leave.

According to his story, the San Francisco lad started to fight him, and in the scuffle, Tsamteris hit the lad over the left eye with an ice cream ladle. The boy was taken to Alemany hospital by Officer Edmond Heim where five stitches were required to close the cut.

When Tsamteris indicated he did not want to prefer charges against the lads, all three parties were taken to the local police station, where the boys were reprimanded, told to stay out of the candy store in the future, and released in the custody of their parents. Tsamteris was told to call the police in case of future trouble, not to take the law in his own hands.

The mother of the San Francisco lad signed a complaint against Tsamteris in local police court Tuesday. He was released on $50 cash bail, to appear Friday, August 10 at 2:30 p. m.

Poor 'Pop'---He Gets All The Blame Anyhow!

Reason for Mrs. Vivian Jackson of 701 Templeton avenue being forced to give birth to a baby boy at the home rather than in a hospital Tuesday morning, July 31, was failure of the husband, Adam Jackson, to request ambulance service in time, Mrs. Elaine Hughes supervisor of San Mateo county medical welfare, and Daly City police officers said this week.

Neither did the Jacksons make any provision for the coming event, officers said. When a nurse sent to the home from the Colma health office by Mrs. Hughes arrived, she had to take care of these necessary provisions.

The three county ambulances, two of which are stationed at Community hospital, and the third in this city, are now equipped with emergency O. B. packs, to provide against future emergencies of this kind, Mrs. Hughes said.

No criticism of local police officers or the county welfare department was intended or implied in the story of the Jackson case, as reported in last week's Record.

The fact that it was the second time during the week that the stork had beaten ambulances to Daly City homes made it news, and the story was written solely in that light.

STONESON BROTHERS TO DEVELOP NEW TRACT VERY SOON

Stoneson Brothers, developers of Lakeside Village in San Francisco and Edgewood Terrace, east of Hillside boulevard in Daly City, are now rapidly completing plans for another residential project in the western part of unincorporated Colma which when completed, call for the building of 6,500 homes.

Territory included in the proposed new project includes all vacant lots in the present Garden Village tract, and a major portion of the territory west of Sullivan and Clara streets, extending from Garden Village south to Pierce street, and including all but a few lots of that, at present, undeveloped territory west of Annie street. One thousand acres will be included in the proposed district and present plans of Stoneson brothers include the completion of a new business district in that area.

Notice of proposed change of zoning district to change territory in the proposed project to a residential-business district and providing for improvement of all existing and proposed streets in the area was submitted on July 13 to San Mateo county engineer Capt. M. A. Grant and the San Mateo county health and welfare department.

This proposed change of zoning district will be up for first public hearing Friday, August 17, and final public hearing Monday, September 17, according to a legal notice signed by Secretary Frank S. Skillman of the San Mateo county planning commission and carried in this week's Record.

These hearings will be held in the offices of the San Mateo county board of supervisors in the court house at Redwood City, at 1:30 p. m. on the two dates named.

Magnitude of the proposed project can be seen when it is noted that, if completed according to present plans, it will include a total of new homes that will be nearly double the number of homes within the present Daly City limits, including the newly developed Edgewood Terrace project. And 1000 acres is a lot of acreage—in any man's language.

Two Daly City Residents Are Bitten By Dogs

Two Daly City residents were bitten by dogs during the past week and were treated at Alemany Emergency hospital for slight injuries, with the local pound man being ordered to take the dogs into his charge.

At 7 p. m., Saturday, August 4, Officer James Welsh took nine year old Dale Hammes of 57 Shakespeare street to Alemany hospital for treatment after she had been bitten on the upper right leg by a dog owned by a family at 157 Shakespeare street.

At 11:55 a. m., Monday, August 6, Mrs. Margaret Dawley of 660 Hanover street was bitten on the middle finger of the right hand as she attempted to pet a neighbor's dog. She was taken to Alemany hospital for treatment.

Daly City Firemen Answer Four Calls

Four alarms, one for a fire at the dump near Marchbanks park, a second a grass fire and a third a false alarm occupied the attention of Daly City firemen the past week. None of the fires was serious, all being extinguished in short order.

At 3:55 p. m., Tuesday, August 7, an unknown man phoned stating the dump at the end of Parkview avenue, south of Marchbanks park was on fire. Companies 1 and 2 responded and brought the blaze under control in a few minutes.

The grass fire was at the corner of School street and Railroad avenue, near the Villa Mateo property, at 6 o'clock Sunday evening, August 5. Companies 1, 2 and 6 responded when someone phoned the Villa Mateo building was on fire.

At noon, Saturday, August 4, Companies 1 and 4 were called to the home of Mrs. William Crawford of 836 Hanover street when a gas heater in the fireplace set fire to two joists. The fire was extinguished with little damage.

The false alarm at 10:30 p. m. Tuesday, August 7, called Companies 1, 2 and 4 to box 17 near the Stockton Lumber Co. on Mission street.

Tipsy Driver Is Released On $100 Bail

Wednesday, August 1, at 5:45 p. m. local traffic officers stationed at the Mission street-Hillcrest drive intersection observed a Chevrolet coupe being driven south on Mission street in a very erratic manner.

When the officers stopped the car at Mission street and Citrus avenue, they arrested the driver, Thelma La Rue Parks of 616 Lakeview avenue, San Francisco, for allegedly driving while intoxicated and brought her to the local station.

An hour later, her brother appeared before Judge Sweeney and arranged for her release on $100 bail. She will appear for trial Friday, August 10, at 2 p. m.

Bus Smashes Fence In Wild Downhill Cruise

Maybe the bloomin' bus got hungry too, tired of working or sumthin'.

Anyway, when Roosevelt Sawyer, colored operator of one of the Municipal Railway No. 26 buses, pulled up to the corner of San Jose avenue and Bepler street, Saturday, August 4, at 8:50 p. m., he decided to go to a local restaurant to get something to eat.

When he had gotten about ten feet away, the bus started rolling backward down the San Jose avenue hill and across the street. Sawyer was unable to catch up with it until it had crashed into a parked car belonging to Caesar Huckhard of 235 Miriam street and also into a fence around the vacant lot between the Daly City Service station and the Milo residence.

There was no one in the Huckhard car at the time.

Sawyer, who lives at 276 Double Rock avenue, San Francisco, was given a citation by local police for leaving the bus on an incline without having the brakes properly set.

Potsdam Report

The report of the Big Three on their Potsdam meeting was probably more remarkable for what it did not say, rather than for what it did say.

What the world wanted to hear most—and what the Japanese feared most—was some indication of Russia's future role in the Pacific war. But there was not the slightest hint on this score, unless it was the brief statement at the very end of the report which said simply that "military matters of common interest" had been discussed during the conference between the chiefs of staff. Since Russia is not now at war with Japan what "military matters of common interest" could there be except in the Far East? Tokyo will observe this item with considerable uneasiness.

The outstanding points of agreement between the three leaders provided for a permanent Council of Foreign Ministers of England, Russia, the United States, France and China which will have its headquarters in London; permanently bar the present Spanish government from ever being admitted to membership in the United Nations; set forth in detail a political and economic plan for Germany designed to remove the danger of that nation waging war again for generations to come.

Poland has been given approximately 50,000 square miles of German territory in addition to the greater part of East Prussia. The Polish border will reach a point hardly more than 50 miles from Berlin itself. Russia gets the northern section of East Prussia, including the port of Koenigsberg. This will greatly improve her position on the Baltic and will bring Soviet influence farther west.

Two Masters Too Many

The old theory that railroads are law-breakers because they function under the mandates of the Interstate Commerce Commission apparently is restricted to reactionary elements in the U. S. Department of Justice who are responsible for current anti-trust actions against the railroads and their rate bureaus and associations.

California shippers, who don't relish a return of cut-throat competition between railroads and who feel that the Interstate Commerce Commission is more desirable than the Department of Justice as the arbitrator of transportation affairs, are petitioning Congress to enact H. R. 2536, a measure introduced by Congressman Bulwinkle of North Carolina which will remove the peril of anti-trust prosecution resulting from carrier agreements approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Obviously the railroads can't serve two masters and the regulation of their competitive acts should be left to the experienced hands of the Interstate Commerce Commission. This is reason for the wave of support behind the Bulwinkle bill.

Mr. Attlee's Big Job

Clement Attlee, Britain's new Prime Minister, and other members of the Labor Party were just as surprised, reports say, as anyone else at the smashing victory Labor won in the recent general election.

But Mr. Attlee is unquestionably well aware that the vote was not a personal tribute to him, any more than it was an indication that Winston Churchill is no longer generally liked. The election was one of issues rather than men. The British people want relief at the earliest possible time from the extremely severe restrictions under which they have lived since 1939. They want better housing, more household goods, including such simple things as cooking utensils. They felt they could get these things more quickly under Mr. Attlee than under Mr. Churchill.

That places Mr. Attlee on the well-known "spot." He will be expected to produce. If he is unable to do this he may find that his government will be voted out of office at the next general election five years hence.

What some of the British voters may not appreciate is that by changing governments they have not changed the factors which, at present, are creating a bottleneck on civilian production. The main problem is the labor shortage. Coal is scarce and transportation equipment lacking. Furthermore, the Attlee government is committed to giving full support to the war against Japan. This means that much of the country's productive capacity must be devoted to war output—approximately 60 per cent of the peak production.

Yes, Mr. Attlee won a smashing victory, but he also won a gigantic headache. We wish him well.

County War Chest Sets Goal for 1945-46 Fund Drive

Following a meeting of its executive committee in Burlingaame this past week, the San Mateo County War Chest, through its general campaign chairman, Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton, has announced the 1945-46 fund drive of the chest will be for a goal of $234,953 which is an increase of $19,953 over last year.

Thirteen local social agencies submitted their budgets to the executive committee. These budgets, according to Judge Cotton, showed programs for aid on a larger scale than ever before attempted in the county. The county war chest fund drive will open October 1.

Last year, the goal of the war chest was $215,000 with the drive going over the top to a total of $226,422, according to Lorne G. McAloney, executive secretary.

The county war chest is the clearing house of fund donations to all local charities as well as to national organizations which carry on war relief on a national and international scale. The plan makes it possible for citizens to give in one single annual contribution for local and national organizations.

Ira H. Potter, president of the county war chest, received word from National War Chest headquarters in Washington, D. C., that the national goal this year has been set at $260,000,000. He stated that 60 per cent of the county's quota will remain here for local usage, the balance going to the national fund.

Benefitting from the drive here are such local agencies as the six Girl Scout Councils, the Boy Scouts, the YMCA, the affiliated Catholic Charities, the San Mateo County Preventorium, the San Mateo County Blood Bank, and the Salvation Army.

Karrol Continolo Is Christened

Two-month-old Karrol Linda Continolo, daughter of MM 3/c Frank and Mrs. Continolo, was christened at Our Lady of Perpetual HeHlp church, Wednesday, July 25.

Godparents for the youngster are Violet Bullo, 163 Evergreen avenue and Antone Salazar, 150 Evergreen avenue.

Following the ceremony a combination christening and birthday party was held; the latter being in honor of Karrol's mother who was 18 on that day.

Friends and relatives in attendance were served homemade enchiladas as well as other refreshments.

The celebration took place at 150 Evergreen avenue, the home of Mrs. Continolo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Antone Salazar.

Karrol's father MM 3/c Frank Continolo, serving with the Seabees, has been overseas 10½ months.

James B. "Pop" Smith, genial caretaker of Marchbanks park, will not be around Sunday, August 12.

Immediately after last Sunday's baseball games, "Pop" parked his tools in the Marchbanks park field house and "took off" for a ten day vacation. He will return in time to again be on deck August 19.

One of the other employees at the park will take over during "Pop's" absence.

Recruiting Drive Now Under Way for Port Security Force

All members of the local regiment of the Coast Guard's Volunteer Port Security Force were ordered to active duty Monday, August 6 by the commanding officer, Commander Roy C. Ward.

The regiment is currently conducting an intensive recruiting drive to bring in new men, and all members have been instructed to wear their blue uniforms and white topped caps for a two week period, both at work and at leisure, within the confines of the bay area, to stimulate interest among their business friends and associates.

The constantly increasing flow of supplies and equipment through San Francisco to the Pacific has created an emergency for the Volunteers, who aid the regular Coast Guard in security patrol on the waterfront, releasing regular Coast Guardsmen to man transports, landing craft, and assist in offensive action against the enemy.

The need for new members has been intensified by the growing importance of San Francisco as the major supply port for the Pacific. Five hundred additional men are sought to serve the two six-hour watches each week.

Applications for enrollment in the local regiment of the Port Security Force can be obtained at room 632 Appraisers Building, 630 Sansome street, or by telephoning DOuglas 0842, extension 273. Members of the Force are completely uniformed, armed and fed while on duty.

Merchant Marines, Soldier Arrested Following Melee

A two way melee involving two soldiers from Camp Daly City and two merchant marines shortly after midnight Monday, August 6, resulted in both marines and one of the soldiers being slated to appear in police court here Friday afternoon, August 10, and the other soldier being taken to Alemany hospital for emergency treatment for injuries that may include a fractured jaw.

First of the two fracases happened at 12:15 a. m. Monday morning when Officers Roy Beecher and James Welsh while on patrol duty noticed Sergeant Gene Delranko of Camp Daly City and Robert Roddick of 1835 Scott street, San Francisco, throwing cabbages at each other.

Just as the two officers started to intervene, Roddick got out of a car he was in, and started fighting with Sergeant Delranko. Both men were taken to the local police station and booked for disturbing the peace. Roddick furnished $25 bail and Sgt. Delranko was released in the custody of the commanding officer of Camp Daly City. Both will appear before Judge Sweeney, Friday, August 10 at 2:30 p. m.

As Roddick and Sergeant Delranko were being booked, a report was received that two men were beating up a soldier at the corner of Crocker avenue and Irvington street. Officers Roland Petrocchi and August Benassini responded and found that Private Gerald Cummerford, also of Camp Daly City was the victim.

He told the officers that Francis Springer, a merchant marine of 1723 Sanchez street, San Francisco had knocked him down and beaten him, and asked that Springer be locked up and promised to sign a complaint against him charging assault and battery.

The officers booked Springer on a disturbing the peace charge, then took Cummerford to Alemany hospital for emergency treatment. Hospital authorities advised him to have his jaw X-rayed for a possible fracture.

While Springer was being booked at the station, he challenged Sergeant Delranko and became very abusive. He was released on $25 bail at 4:30 Monday morning and will appear before Judge Sweeney at 2:30 Friday afternoon, August 10, to answer to one of two charges—an assault and battery charge if Private Cummerford signs a complaint in the meantime, or to the disturbing the peace charge filed by the local police.

Shade Needed for Hogs

Hogs can't sweat, so fat ones will die in hot weather if they can't get shade and moisture. A cement wallow under a roof is good. Some farmers have sprinkler systems for hog houses with cement floors.

Use Mothproofing Liquid

Watch the danger spots for moths. They tuck away in corners, under radiators and heavy furniture, on stair risers and near baseboards. It's important to generously spray these areas twice a year with a mothproofing liquid. To combat moths keep rugs thoroughly clean and exposed to light and air.

When James Cerna, 1076 Brunswick street, contacted local police, Friday, August 3, at 11:20 a. m. to report alleged loss of license plate No. 54-775 from his car; he found himself in a wee bit of a jam.

Police, suspicious, because of prior traffic infractions, asked Cerna for his registration certificate. When he was unable to produce it, they filed charges against him in Judge Sweeney's court, citing him for non-display of license plates and having no registration certificate.

Friday afternoon, Judge Sweeney assessed Cerna a $5 fine which he paid.

More Power Needed

More power, by one-third, is required to pull a mower with a dull sickle and poor guards than to pull a well-adjusted mower that has a sharp sickle. The University of Wisconsin found that the draft of a 5-foot mower in good condition was 455 to 478 pounds. With a dull sickle and bad guards, the draft was 531 to 718 pounds.

Chairman Tozzi Issues Call for Volunteer Help

"The backbone of rationing and price control is right at the local War Price and Rationing Boards, and the backbone of the local Board is the volunteer who represents 81 per cent of the OPA staffing in the Western states," Chairman Monsignor Tozzi said yesterday in issuing a call for more volunteer help.

The national volunteer average is 71 per cent, he said.

"There is an immediate need for volunteers to serve in clerical capacities as well as specialized work requiring a thorough knowledge of regulations, as processors of certificates, to serve as reporting and recording clerks, to send out advance notices as well as to act in the capacity of typists, and assist in mailing ration stamps.

"The direct mail program eliminating delays at the Board is increasingly successful, and volunteers are needed to speed up the mailing program. The more volunteers, the better the service. Our only limitation on volunteers who meet qualifications is that they give us a minimum of four hours weekly.

"Here in the west we are only beginning to feel the full brunt of wartime shortages and the pressures on transport and supply. Now that we are on the domestic frontline of the war effort, the work of local boards must be speeded up in its service to the public." Chairmon Monsignor Tozzi asked volunteers to immediately contact him, or the Board's chief clerk, Mrs. Robbins. Returning discharged veterans are also urged to volunteer.

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

With the 7th Infantry Division On Okinawa, July 31—Sgt. Adolph P. Bertocchi, rifle squad sergeant with the 7th Division, has just added a fourth campaign star to his Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon, with the successful completion of the operation against the Japs on Okinawa.

Bertocchi also wears the Bronze Star Medal for heroism in action against the enemy. His other decorations include the Philippine Liberation Ribbon, with two stars; the American Defense Ribbon, the Combat Infantry Badge and the Good Conduct Medal.

After the war he plans to return to his home at 102 Vale street, Daly City.

Private Walter F. Hughes, son of Mrs. Elaine Hughes, 153 Alexander avenue, who enlisted in the Army Air Corps Reserve on his 17th birthday, September 13, 1943, while still attending high school is at present taking technical training in the communication division at Scott Field, Illinois.

After graduating from Jefferson Union High school in June 1944 he was sent to Montana State college at Missoula, Montana. In March 1945 he was transferred to regular service and sent to Camp Beale, Marysville, California, then to Sheppard Field, Texas and Chanute Field, Illinois and finally to Scott Field.

One of the servicemen on the Santa Paula as she sailed into New York harbor this week was Sergeant Glenn L. Sevier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sevier of 2 Garden lane, Garden Village.

Sergeant Sevier, who was returning from six months European duty, that followed two two years of service in the Alaskan area, immediately telegraphed his parents of his arrival. He expects to reach Camp Beale the latter part of the week, and expects to have either 21 or 30 days at home before reporting for reassignment on the Pacific front.

He enlisted in March 1941, and after basic training at Camp Roberts, Los Gatos and Orange, California went to Alaska in May, 1942. He sailed for Europe in February 1945, and served in France and Germany with the 15th Army as a member of the 23rd company of the 550th Field Artillery battalion. He wears the Good Conduct ribbon.

Among servicemen who greeted the Statue of Liberty with cheers as they sailed past her into New York harbor aboard the steamship Mormacport this week was PFC. Frank J. Heinzle jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Heinzle Sr., 60 Mateo avenue. Heinzle senior is a well-known house painter of the southern Daly City-Colma area.

PFC. Heinzle, who is 25 years old, has been in the service three and a half years, receiving his basic training at Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri. He went direct from Fort Wood to European duty, serving for over two years with the 109th regiment of the 28th (Keystone) division, and wears two bronze stars for valiant service in the campaigns in Normandy and Southern France where his division was attached to the 15th army.

Upon arrival in New York, PFC Heinzle sent his family a telegram in which he said he expected to arrive home in about two weeks.

Sergeant Martin Johnson jr. son of Mrs. Martin Johnson, 401 West Lake avenue returned to the States Wednesday, July 11 via the Eastern coast. A week later he arrived at Camp Beale, Marysville, California and was then granted 30 days for rest, rehabilitation and recovery.

Johnson has been in the service since November 1941. He received his basic training at Keesler Field, Mississippi and then attended Armament school at Lowry Field, Denver, Colorado. Following this he was stationed at various places in the States and sent overseas with the 306th bomb group in August 1944. He has been with the ground crew of the U. S. Army Air Corps.

He is entitled to wear European Theatre of Operations Ribbon with five battle participation stars, the American Defense and Good Conduct Ribbons.

He reports back to duty on August 20 at Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

Master Sergeant George R. Young arrived at his home, 416 Templeton avenue, Wednesday night, August 8. He was one of a group of Northern California servicemen who arrived at Hampton Roads, Virginia, aboard the West Point, Wednesday, August 1. Sergeant Young was able to catch a troop train to California and arrived in Sacramento Tuesday night, coming the remainder of the way the next day.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Young, 313 Winchester street, and the brother of Mrs. Joseph Allison, 416 Templeton avenue, and Mrs. Edward Eliasen of 123 Winchester street. His wife, the former Marjorie Greenstrand of Blue Earth, Minnesota, has been staying with Mrs. Eliasen since her discharge from the Women's Army Corps in February of this year. She served 19 months in that organization.

Sergeant Young and his wife met while both were stationed at Esler Field, Louisiana, in 1943.

He entered the armed forces early in 1942, and received his basic training at March Field, California, after which he served at various army bases in the United States, until February of this year when he sailed from New York city for France. While overseas he was a member of the 69th Reconnaissance Group, and just before coming home was transferred to the Ninth Air Force. At present he is unassigned.

He expects to have 30 days in which to renew old acquaintances here, before reporting for redeployment to the Pacific area.

Robert Olson, formerly the popular sales clerk at Milo's grocery, and now a seaman second class in the navy, was home this week enjoying six days leave upon completion of 10 weeks boot training at San Diego.

Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Olson, 165 Miriam street.

Charleston, S. C., Port of Embarkation, July 24—Sergeant Jack Prescott, 24, of Daly City, engineer with the 15th Army Air Force in Italy, arrived here today by transport plane en route home for 30 days.

Brigadier General James T. Duke, Commander of this Transportation Corps port, stated he will be on his way by train to a reception center near his home within 24 hours. He will be issued his leave papers there.

While here, he and other Air Forces men who arrived today were processed and then given a luncheon feast. Telephone and telegraph facilities were available for first calls home. After their 30 days home, almost all members of the group will be leaving for overseas again—this time to the Pacific.

Sergeant Prescott was inducted into the Army in March, 1943, and went overseas to a base in Italy in January, 1944. He has been awarded the following decorations: Presidential Unit Citation, and seven Bronze Battle Stars for his European Theater Ribbon.

He lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Prescott, in Daly City at 315 Peoria street.

Plastic Eyes Provided

Plastic artificial eyes which duplicate the appearance of natural eyes and which are superior to glass eyes, have been developed by the optical industry in the United States for use of wounded veterans, according to the Better Vision Institute. The iris, pupil and veins of the sound eye are matched in pattern and coloration by the artificial eye. The eyeball is built up layer by layer of plastic so as to obtain a natural effect.

Challenge Game To Be Feature At Marchbanks Park

A challenge game between Longshoremen and Teamsters, rival labor union sponsored baseball teams, at 2:30 and a second half Baseball Managers' Summer League contest involving Campi's Tavern and Young Christian Workers at 12 noon, will occupy the attention of local baseball fans at Marchbanks park Sunday, August 12.

Management of the Teamsters has challenged the Longshoremen, Manager Harry Maloney of the latter club said this week, and he has accepted the challenge.

The Teamsters nine has broken even in two prior appearances at Marchbanks park this summer. They defeated the Bear Photo Service nine 10 to 9 and dropped an 11 to 3 decision to the strong Coast Guard Fliers of San Mateo.

Either Joe Majoureau, former San Francisco Seal rookie or Dick Hazel is expected to do the pitching for them Sunday, with Sam Valentine working behind the plate.

Maloney will use the same lineup that played most of last Sunday's game against Bear Photo Service. Sgt. Ronnie Da La Hunt, erstwhile San Francisco Marine southpaw will work on the mound with Jenkins, another Marine behind the plate.

"Lefty" Fieber at first, Mike Dalton at second, Frank Guglimetti at short and Ray Spina at third will compose the infield with George Miller and Bob Gilbert of the Marines in left and center and Eddie Rose in right field. Gilbert hit a long home run to the deepest part of left field last Sunday.

Strengthened by the addition of several new players, Campi's Tavern now rates as one of the strongest summer league nines. Last week they bowled over Laundry Workers 5 to 2. Young Christian Workers have failed to win either of their two starts in the league's second half, but figure on turning the tables Sunday. In their first half meeting, Campi's Tavern took an 8 to 7 verdict.

Lineups of these two teams will probably be:

Campi's Tavern—Tognotti, ss; Cotla, lf; Cook, rf; Whitehorn, c; Marazzi, 1b; Sutherland, cf; La Grave, 2b; Laurel, 3b; Mulesky, p.

Young Christian Workers — Ignoffo, ss; Solis, 3b; Howard, 2b; Remy, 1b; Mountaintes, cf; Campilongi, rf; Ziess, c; Stromberg, lf; Ball, p.

Australians Live in Towns

Despite its rural character, Australia has about two-thirds of its people living in towns. Sydney and Melbourne alone hold a third of the nation's population. Coal from the state of New South Wales, and gold, silver, lead, copper and tin from scattered mines, have, especially in recent years, created the industries largely responsible for the growth of big cities.

Frances Wilson Becomes Bride Of Elmer Carlsen

Marriage vows were exchanged by Frances Wilson and Storekeeper 2/c Elmer Carlsen, Saturday, August 4, at 8 p. m. at the Calvary Presbyterian church, Jackson and Fillmore streets, San Francisco. The Reverend Ernest Bradley officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a white gown fashioned with a full net skirt and a bodice of satin brocade made with a sweetheart neckline. The finger tip veil had a pearl seeded head piece. She carried her bible with a marker of gardenias and bouvardia.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. Nancy Bjorge, matron of honor wore a light blue satin gown and carried red roses and gardenias.

Best man duties were performed by Private First Class Donald Wilson, brother of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Agnes Wilson, 630 Moscow street, San Francisco but has been residing with her sister Mrs. Nancy Bjorge at 346 Hillside boulevard.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neils Carlsen of El Campo, Texas.

Reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother.

Things have changed in Half a Century

Gas and Electricity are Cheaper, too

	1894	1945
GAS	$18.40	$2.59
ELECTRICITY	$13.49	$2.28

One Month's Bill for Present Average Use

FIFTY YEARS AGO the corner of Market and Beale Street, where the 17-story P. G. and E. General Office Building now stands, was occupied by the Holbrook Building, built in 1881.

Market Street was paved with cobblestones over which horse-drawn trucks and cabs rattled and rumbled. Cable cars clanged their way down the center of the street. The little Sutter Street trailer car, hauled by a team of half-broken horses, jogged down to the ferry building on the outside track. Those were the horse and buggy days.

Most of San Francisco's streets and homes were lighted with gas. Coal and wood were in general use for heating and cooking. Electricity was used in few homes and only for lighting. Modern appliances—automatic refrigerators, electric toasters, roasters, irons, washers and other electric wonder-workers of today were unknown.

In 1894 both gas and electric services were expensive luxuries compared to the low rates charged today as shown by these typical bills:

	1894	1945
GAS 4,600 cubic feet, the average monthly domestic consumption in San Francisco today	$18.40	$2.59
ELECTRICITY 71 kilowatt hours, present monthly average for domestic use	$13.49	$2.28

The "good old days" were not all good. Half a century of progress has brought countless advantages to the people of this generation, not the least of which are cheap, dependable electric and natural gas service, and a great variety of convenient, efficient labor and time-saving appliances.

How to s-t-r-e-t-c-h your canning sugar

Because you want to cooperate with your Government . . . because your sugar supply is limited . . . because your family likes your home canning . . . we offer you these practical suggestions. A little ingenuity can make rationed sugar go a long way. For instance, you can use

Corn Syrup and Honey—Corn syrup or honey may be used to replace up to ½ the sugar specified in canning syrups. Corn syrup has about ½ the sweetening power of sugar.

To make syrup using corn syrup—Combine sugar, syrup and water and bring to boil.

To make syrup using honey—Combine sugar and water, bring to boil. Add honey, stir and bring to rolling boil. Skim. Honey imparts its characteristic flavor to fruits. It is best to use a mild flavored honey.

PROPORTIONS FOR SYRUPS

Either cane or beet sugar may be used for canning. The wartime canning rule allows one pound of sugar to 4 quarts of fruit.

Light Syrup—1 cup sugar to 3 to 4 cups water.
Medium Syrup—1 cup sugar to 2 cups water.
Heavy Syrup—1 cup sugar to ¾ to 1 cup water.

Heat to boiling, stirring until sugar is dissolved.

For berries and juicy fruits, substitute fruit juice for all or part of water in making syrup.

Allow ¾ to 1 cup syrup for each pint of fruit after it is packed in jar.

We recommend:
Canning of fruit juices without sugar.
Use for winter jelly making when your sugar supply is less depleted than during the canning season.

In using sugar stretchers for jellies, jams and preserves, we advise following specific recipes and directions. Frequently cooking time and texture are affected. If you use commercial pectins, be sure to follow the manufacturers' recipes.

Canned fruit holds its shape, color and flavor when sugar is used. But sugar is not necessary to keep fruit from spoiling. If your sugar runs short put up some fruit without sugar, and sweeten to taste when you serve. Process unsweetened fruits the same as sweetened.

Restaurants In Daly City Have Their Troubles Too

With the exception of Peter's Lunch, 6286 Mission street, which closed Monday, August 6 for vacation, to be closed until Tuesday, August 21, Daly City restaurants intend to stay open as much as possible during the present red point emergency that has closed many eating places all over Northern California, and threatens to close even more during the month of August.

Proprietors of the other two major restaurants in the "top of the hill" area say they too are beset by the same rationing problems that restaurants in other cities have found too much for them—in addition figure on an upsurge of their business during the next few weeks as more and more eating places in the outer Mission and Geneva-Excelsior areas close for vacations and because of lack of red points. But they are aided in one way—much of their breakfast trade is of the "coffee and" or hotcakes and coffee variety which doesn't require red points, but at the same time each of these orders can be counted as a meal in determining red point quotas for future periods.

As a result these restaurant men say they will do the best they can to keep open—but want to go on record as urging all local people who can eat at home, to do so instead of depending on the restaurants.

George Spoulos, proprietor of Theatre Grill, 6233 Mission street said this week, "We're having plenty of point troubles too, and may have to close before the month is over. However, right now, we are able to struggle through, and as long as we can continue to do so, will be open our usual hours."

John Sacaldasis, proprietor of the Daly City Coffee Shop, 6339 Mission street, which reopened Friday, August 3, after being closed two weeks for vacation and renovation, said:

"Being closed those two weeks enabled us to save quite a few points on our quota for the present period. While it will cut down on our quota for the next period, it is quite possible that the present situation may cause the OPA to ease up on their restrictions and allow us more points by that time. Anyway, all we can do is to go ahead and keep hoping."

Meanwhile "closed for vacation" and "closed account no red points" signs are becoming more and more common each day in San Francisco. Many hotel restaurants are expected to close during August because of shortage of points—likewise many other eating places in the city, both large and small—unless the OPA does take some action in permitting these places a higher quota of red points each period.

Eagles Trying To Reach Quota Of 60 New Members

In an effort to reach their July-August quota of 60 candidates, Colma-Vista Grande Aerie 1848, Fraternal Order of Eagles will initiate another class of candidates at the August 16 meeting. This class will be known as "Over the Top" class, membership chairman John Craig announced this week.

Forty new members have already been initiated into the order during July, and members anticipate little trouble in signing up enough additional new members for the August 16 class to more than top their quota for the two months.

The Eagles will not meet Thursday, August 30, since aerie laws call for only four meetings a month, Craig stated.

Two Youths Are Bound Over To Juvenile Court

The slightly too bold actions of two 17 year old Daly City lads in taking two hub caps from a car in broad daylight and in plain sight of the owner, led to their arrest and being bound over to the juvenile court in Redwood City, where they will appear for trial Monday, August 13.

At 1:05 p. m. Saturday, July 28, Mrs. Ralph Hyet of 50 W. Moltke street reported to local police that two men or boys in a red roadster had taken the hub caps from her 1935 Dodge sedan parked in front of her home.

Sergeant Ricco Benedetti responded to the call and was furnished an excellent description of both car and boys by Mrs. Hyet. The officer and Mrs. Hyet then drove over Daly City, locating the two boys in a garage at the home of one of them.

Mrs. Hyet identified one of the boys, and a car belonging to the other was identified as the car used in the theft of the hub caps. When brought to the local station, the boys admitted taking the hub caps. Later in the afternoon, Sergeant Benedetti and Officer Henry Sundermann jr. searched the garage and found an assortment of automobile fixtures, most of them already reported stolen from other cars in Daly City and vicinity.

Taken to juvenile court, the boys were released on $50 cash bail each, which was furnished by relatives.

They appeared before Judge Sweeney here Friday, August 3, and were certified to juvenile court for final hearing, with their bail being transferred to that court.

Robert Ragland Gets San Quentin Prison Sentence

Robert Ragland, 38 year old negro shipyard worker last week pleaded guilty to a grand theft charge in Judge A. R. Cotton's court in Redwood City, and was sentenced to serve a one to ten year sentence at San Quentin. Ragland was charged with the theft of $3716 in cash and a quantity of liquor from the Southern Kitchen just south of Colma last month.

A former employee of the tavern he was taken in custody the day after the robbery, and a considerable part of the stolen cash found in his San Francisco room.

Toxicity of Insecticides

Experience has shown that it is not possible to predict the toxicity of a compound to any insect on the basis of tests made against another insect. Progress in developing new insecticides would proceed much more rapidly if the initial testing could always be carried out on the specific insect to be controlled.

Spend Day at Forbidden Acres

Mrs. Ed Saliou and daughter Eleanor of 199 School street were the honored guests of Mrs. Hue on Saturday afternoon, July 28 at Forbidden Acres, Pleasanton, California.

Mrs. Hue is the sister of Charlie Low, owner of the exclusive Forbidden City club in San Francisco and also the Forbidden Acres, consisting of 130 acres on which are situated a spacious Spanish type home, a swimming pool, and stables.

Other guests for the day included Mrs. Wong and her son Dickie from Seattle and her sister Estelle Heui, of San Francisco.

The two honored guests were served a delicious luncheon after which they were shown around the beautiful grounds.

"AIR LINE HAS OPENINGS FOR WAR VETERANS"

Applications by honorably discharged men given special attention by airline.

Men who are leaving the Army, Navy, and Marines are establishing themselves in permanent positions with United Air Lines. The airline reports that many more positions are available and veterans are being given every consideration.

Veterans with mechanical or technical experience are particularly needed. However, there are other departments at United where openings are available.

Among the jobs which veterans are now doing and for which more openings exist are station agents, cargo handlers, ticket agents, reservations agents, supply men, and various types of mechanical jobs including sheet metal, radio-electric, instrument service, and line service.

These positions are not only essential to this war industry but offer permanence and opportunities for advancement in the expansion of air transportation after the war.

Employee benefits at United include free home study course, free group insurance, a retirement plan, vacations with pay, half fare air travel, and periodic wage review.

For further information about these positions apply in person at United Air Lines, San Francisco Airport, Bayshore Blvd., at San Bruno Ave., or 421 Powell St., San Francisco.

Newman Pitcher Hurls Four Hit Shutout Sunday

Paul's Fountain, Gordon Realtors and Frank Newman Funitures remained undefeated in the second half Summer League race by winning their third games Sunday. But Western Pipe and Steel fell from the ranks of the undefeated when they were held to a four hit shutout by Jim Lowman, Newman hurler in the feature game of the day.

Newmans won the game 4 to 0, collecting seven hits off Giovaccini, Western Pipe and Steel pitcher. Catcher Young accounted for two of the safeties.

Tommy Green, 15 year old high school pitcher held Regal Pales to three scattered hits as Gordon Realtors took a 7 to 0 decision in the first game at Marchbanks park Sunday. The game was halted at the end of the first half of the sixth inning by the time limit.

Paul's Fountain buried Young Christian Workers under a 9 to 1 score at "Cookie" Pera gave up five hits. Silverstein led the winners attack with three hits, while Horner, Baxes anad McDougall collected two each.

In the other games Sunday, Grosso Musics took Federal Outfitting 9 to 4 and Campi's Tavern bested Laundry Workers 5 to 2.

The Gordon-Regal Pales was a slow, listless affair featured by the pitching of Green, who collected five strikeouts, and a two-run home run by Moran, Gordon left fielder, in the second inning. With Bob Di Pietro on first base by way of a single, Moran clouted the ball on top of the short left field embankment, and was awarded a circuit drive by the umpires.

Start of the game was held up between 30 and 45 minutes by failure of players, principally Regal Pales, to get on to the field in time. The Regal nine was handicapped by failure of its equipment to arrive and was forced to borrow bats and balls from the Gordon management in order to play the game.

No attempt was made to hustle the game along by either team, and park officials were forced to call a halt at the end of the first half of the sixth inning.

Schedule for Sunday, August 12, has been announced as follows:

Marchbanks park — 12:00 — Young Christian Workers vs. Campi's Tavern.

Big Rec No. 1—12:15 Federal Outfitting Co. vs. Shipfitters; 2:30—Gordon Realtors vs. Western Pipe and Steel.

Big Rec. No. 2—12:15—Regal Pales vs. Frank Newman Co.; 2:30—Paul's Fountain vs. Laundry Workers.

Coast Guard Wants To Enlist More SPARS

Citing the urgent need for more Coast Guard SPARS to release Coast Guardsmen from shore jobs for invasion duty in the Pacific, Ensign Ann Dunker, Bay Area SPAR Recruiting Officer announced the opening of a new SPAR recruiting drive today.

According to Miss Dunker, all Bay Area girls who join the SPARS before 22 August will leave San Francisco on that date for the Manhattan Beach Training Station, in New York, where they will take their six weeks' indoctrination course together.

Following "boot" training, they may either be sent to a specialist school or immediately assigned to duty at a Coast Guard installation.

Women between 20 and 36, with 2 years' high school education and, preferably, some business or professional experience, are needed for Coast Guard shore jobs in the United States, Alaska, and Hawaii.

Women desiring information about the SPARS, smallest of the women's services, may visit or call Ensign Dunker at the SPAR Recruiting Station, 46 Geary street, San Francisco.

Twenty-nine Pay Fines At Traffic Court August 3

Judge William J. Sweeney had to contend with 29 violators at the last session of traffic court held Friday, August 3.

Largest fine meted out by Judge Sweeney was $100 to William Bloom, 3145-22nd street, San Francisco for drunk driving. He also paid $10 for being drunk in a public place. Robert Nelson, 291 Hillcrest drive, was fined $25 for being drunk in a public place; Tom Birmingham, 29 Buena Vista, San Bruno, in lieu of appearance, forfeited $10 for the same charge; Blanche Williams, 120 Farralones street, also forfeited $10, in lieu of appearance, for being drunk in a public place.

Woodrow Bowman, 1407 Silliman street, San Francisco, paid $25 for reckless driving; Antonio Acebo, 1128½ Florida street, $2.50, signal; Alfred Bourdet, $1.50, arterial stop; James Chambers, $1.50, signal; Lovell Chase, Millbrae, $5, speeding; James Diamond, San Francisco, $2.50, signal; George Duboy, $5, no operator's license and signal; Thomas Ellingson, San Mateo, $5, speeding; Jack Jaymot, $2.50, signal; Gisberto Panattierto, South San Francisco, $2.50, signal; Domenico Sanbuceti, $2.50, signal; Frank Weber, San Francisco, $7.50, speeding; Ward Wilson, Oakland, $2.50, signal; Verton Turner, $2.50, signal; G. The following violators each paid $1 fines for overnight parking: Irene Murdock, M. Robin, William Bloom, W. Coursey, P. Holbrook, J. Hobbs, A. Smith, M. Robaldo, C. White.

Three Stolen Autos Recovered By Police Dept.

Through efforts of Daly City police, three automobiles stolen during the weekend were recovered and turned over to the owners.

At 9:50 a. m., Friday, August 3, Sergeant Ricco Benedetti responded to a phone call from Mrs. Vera Ayers of 38 Frankfort street and found a green Buick sedan abandoned on a little used road in the hills back of Frankfort street. Both front wheels and tires had been taken from the car which had apparently been ransacked before being abandoned.

Local officers contacted the San Francisco police department and learned that the car, belonging to Richard Zinnbauer of Millbrae, had been stolen from the Excelsior district in San Francisco. It was released to the owner the next day.

At 6:10 a. m., Saturday, August 4, Cliff Pettigrew of 47 Hillcrest drive told local officers that a Cadillac sedan was parked on the coast road near Skyline boulevard.

Contacting San Francisco police, local officers learned the car, belonging to Frank McGee of 3130 Webster street, San Francisco had been reported stolen. They asked local officers to have the car towed to a Daly City garage, where it was released to the owner later the same day.

At 9:25 a. m., Sunday, August 5, George Fair jr., 6147 Mission street reported to local police that his 1933 Plymouth sedan had been taken between 12:20 a. m. and 9 a. m. Sunday morning. The San Francisco and San Mateo county police were notified by radio and the car was recovered at Sharps Park, Monday, August 6, at 6:55 p. m. Owner was notified by Officers Roy Beecher and James Welsh.

Catcher Injured Watching Game At Local Park

Danger of standing too close to the screen back of home plate at Marchbanks park while a baseball game is in progress was shown Sunday when Bobby Payne, member of the Gordon Realty baseball team suffered a painful cut on his forehead. Payne, who changed into his street clothes, had returned to the field and was watching the Longshoremen-Bear Photo Service game, when a sharp foul tip sped directly from the bat into the screen at the point where Payne was standing and pushed the heavy wire into his face in such a manner that he was cut badly about the forehead. Payne was standing behind the screen, with his face pressed against it when the accident occurred.

When Manager Harry Maloney of the Longshoremen attempted to render first aid, he found the injury too serious to be taken care of in that manner. So Payne was hurriedly rushed to Alemany hospital by Bob Di Pietro, a fellow Gordon Realty player. Several stitches were required to close the cut.

Why Payne, regular catcher of the Gordon nine, and a man who should more than other people, realize the sharpness and speed with which foul balls crash against the Marchbanks park backstop, could not see the risk he was taking by pressing his face against the screen directly back of the plate, is more than people who saw the accident can understand.

The pitch was a fast ball served up by Ronnie De La Hunt, left handed pitching ace of the San Francisco Marines and Longshoremen, who can put plenty of speed and twist on his fast curve. The Bear Photo batter just touched the ball with his bat, enough to speed it just over the heads of Catcher Jenkins and Umpire Rock directly into the screen at the point where Payne was standing.

Boys Find Lost Package

Sharp eyes and honesty of two Daly City lads, Billie Ritter of 162 Vista Grande avenue, and Roger Lillo of 139 Vista Grande avenue, resulted in Jean's Gift Shop, 49 Taylor street, San Francisco recovering a valuable package being shipped them by Homeware company of Los Angeles this week.

Monday afternoon, August 6, at 1:10 p. m., the two boys brought the package to the local police station, saying they had found it on the street.

Jeans' Gift Shop was contacted and at 3:50, the same afternoon, Edward Garna, driver for Walkup Drayage Co., identified the package as one that had been lost from his truck and it was given to him.

Two Auto Crashes Result In Slight Property Damages

Two automobile accidents, both slight, and involving no injury to occupants of any of the cars were reported to local police last week.

Wednesday, August 1, at 9:10 p. m., cars driven by Mitchell Slivkoff jr. and Kathleen L. Heeman, both of San Francisco, crashed at the intersection of Junipero Serra boulevard and 91st street with only slight property damage to the cars.

At 4:50 p. m., Thursday, August 2, a Mercury sedan driven by Mrs. May L. MacDonald of San Francisco bumped into the rear of a Chvrolet sedan driven by Carl L. Bose, also of San Francisco. Both cars were going north on Mission street, the accident occurring near the Wellington avenue intersection. Bose's right rear fender and Mrs. MacDonald's left front fender were damaged.

Identify Man Found Here As Agnew Inmate

Through combined efforts of police departments of Daly City and San Francisco, officials of the Community hospital of San Mateo, and an aide from Agnew State hospital, the man found unconscious on the lawn of Villa Sanitarium early Wednesday morning, August 1, was identified the next afternoon as Walter Joseph Silvas, who escaped from the Agnew institution, March 4.

Although Silvas regained consciousness some 24 hours after he was removed to Community hospital, he at first refused to divulge his identity. An examination by doctors at the hospital disclosed two trephine openings in his skull, an unusual surgical marking. This led to a check of hospital records, which disclosed that Silvas had been a patient there in 1944.

The records show that he has a sister, Mrs. Beatrice Feliz, 319 East Hazelton street, Stockton.

When taken to the hospital by local police, Silvas had a large bruise on the left hip and blood in his stomach. A further examination at the hospital disclosed he had had a surgical spinal puncture within the previous 48 hours, which led officials to believe he had walked away from some other hospital without permission.

This led to contacts with other nearby hospitals, which in turn led to his identification by Agnew officials, who recalled that a man of his description had escaped from that institution March 4. An aide from Agnew then came to Community hospital, and positively identified him.

Meanwhile local police learned that he had been living at 1118 Gough street, San Francisco with a man named Walter Jewels. Jewels was contacted through San Francisco police, and asked to go to Community hospital to further identify him.

He was returned to Agnew hospital Thursday night.

County Officers Suspect Murder In Dooley Case

In the belief that Peter Dooley, 52 year old San Mateo house painter, who disappeared in May, and whose blood stained automobile was later found in the Richmond district of San Francisco, was murdered, San Mateo county officers Sunday arrested Charles Davis, 39 year old ex-convict, and also a house painter, for investigation in connection with the case.

Dooly was reported missing in May, when he failed to appear at a job on which he was working. His automobile was found abandoned near Seventh avenue and Cabrillo street in San Francisco, and was found to have blood stains on the front seat, floor and in the rear trunk compartment.

Davis, who has served time in San Quentin for a murder in 1923, was arrested at his home in Boulder Creek, Sunday by Deputy Sheriff Thomas Maloney and San Mateo Chief of Police Robert O'Brien and brought to Redwood City for questioning by Deputy District Attorney A. S. Whitmore.

Whitmore said there were similarities between the Dooley case and the murder for which Davis was convicted 22 years ago. He also said Davis admitted knowing Dooley but denied any knowledge of details relating to the latter's disappearance.

Young People Give Surprise Party For Shirley Miller

The Nazarene Young People's class, with Verna McKisson as hostess, gave a surprise birthday party for Miss Shirley Miller, who upon reaching her fifteenth birthday became a member of the class.

The surprise affair was held at the home of Reverend and Mrs. D. C. McKisson, 33 San Pedro avenue, Thursday evening, August 2.

The "surprised" guest received many lovely gifts. Ice cream made by the members and a lovely cake topped with "Happy Birthday, Shirley" were served.

Those in attendance were Mrs. Helen Edminster, class teacher; Bob Mills, president of the class; Wayne Connor, Donald Walker, Robert Thompson, Leona Powell, and escort Phil, U. S. Navy; Shirley Miller, Jo Wheeler, Edith Clem, Verna McKisson, and Nancy Edminster.

Carol Garibaldi To Be Queen Of S. F. Market Fiesta

Carol Gay Garibaldi, 7 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garibaldi of Market and County streets, Daly City, will be queen of the old-fashioned fiesta, with which growers using the Free Farmers' Market in San Francisco will celebrate the second anniversary of the market's opening, Saturday, August 11. This announcement was made this week by John G. Brucato, chairman of the Market Advisory Committee.

The celebration will be a day-long affair. Farmers will dress in fiesta costumes and will decorate their trucks and the market booths with vegetables, wreaths and tree branches and this is expected to make the market area one of the most colorful in the city that day.

A public auction of varied bundles of produce will be staged starting at 9:30 a. m. with Charles "Scotty" Butterworth as auctioneer. In an adjoining lot, livestock donated by growers will be auctioned off to farmers. Proceeds of the two auctions will be divided among the Elena Zeletaya School for the Blind, Log Cabin Ranch school, Salesian Boys' club, and the Homeless Children fund of the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West.

The fiesta will close with a banquet at the Whitcomb Hotel, Saturday evening. Evelyn La Place, president of the Parkside District Improvement association will be chairman, with Carroll Newburgh, past president of the central Council of Civic clubs as master of ceremonies.

The celebration will be broadcast by Norville Gillespie, garden editor of Sunset magazine, over KSFO in the morning, and KPO in the afternoon.

In two years the market has helped Northern and Central California farmers dispose of some 1800 carloads of surplus fruit and vegetables worth four and a half million dollars.

Eighty-two carloads of produce were received in July, double the amount for June. Three hundred five trucks entered the market in the last week of July, breaking the previous high which was 291 trucks in the first week of September, 1944.

In July, 11,600 lugs of apricots were received from Solano, Santa Clara and Contra Costa counties, in addition to 10,325 lugs and 1506 field boxes of peaches from San Joaquin, Stanislaus and Fresno counties; 6548 lugs of potatoes from San Mateo county, as well as a large quantity of apples from Sonoma and Napa counties, and corn from the San Joaquin valley.

Seventy-eight Girl Scouts Return From Monte Toyon

Daly City-Colma Girl Scout Council wish to thank Dr. Ivan Budaeff for the courtesy extended and time donated in giving members of the girl scouts physical examinatioins before they attended summer camp.

Seventy-eight girls took advantage of this summer outing at Monte Toyon camp which is located one and one half miles from Aptos, California in the Santa Cruz mountains.

The girls attended camp during the week of July 28 to August 4 inclusive and participated in nature study, hand crafts, finger painting, hikes, dramatics and other activities.

WELL . . . MAYBE HE WAS JUST TOO BUSY

J. O. Carr, proprietor of Carr's Service Station, 6755 Mission street thought he had a stolen car on his hands Sunday, August 5, only to later find it was one that had been left for repairs by one of his customers.

Sunday noon, Carr told Officer Edward Beecher of the local police department that a Chevrolet coupe had been left there the night before, and asked that it be towed to some local garage. As police made arrangements to have the car removed, the owner, Frank G. Miehling, of 159 Capistrano street, San Francisco, contacted Carr and told him he had left the car for repairs.

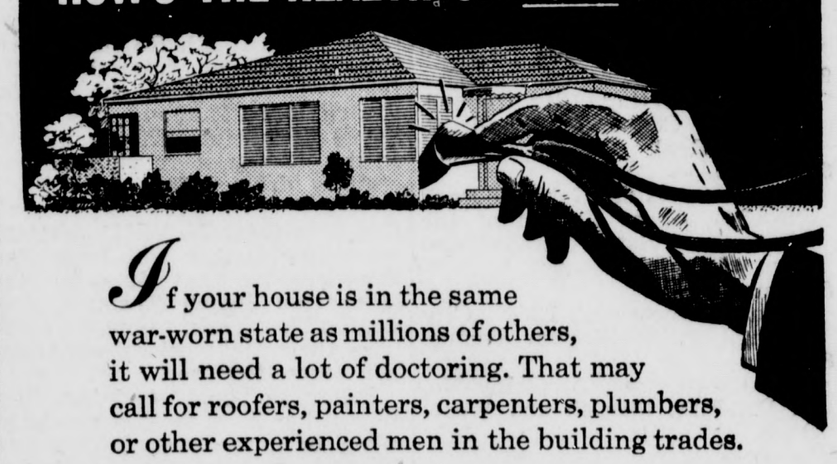
HOW'S THE HEALTH OF YOUR HOUSE?



If your house is in the same war-worn state as millions of others, it will need a lot of doctoring. That may call for roofers, painters, carpenters, plumbers, or other experienced men in the building trades.

The first step is to decide what repairs or improvements your house requires. Then consult an architect or builder... or a contractor. Let him give you an estimate of the cost, then apply at the nearest branch of Bank of America for a convenient, low-cost FHA-Timeplan loan.

The Government now permits loans without priorities for home repair, alteration, or improvement for as much as $1,000 and allows 18 months to repay.

If your house needs a new lease on life, arrange a modernization loan at this bank.

County Officials Hope To Solve Liquor Thefts

Possibility that arrest of a 24 year old negro seaman at Belmont Sunday, and finding of an abandoned car which contained an acetylene outfit, two pinch bars and a flashlight may lead to solution of numerous burglaries of taverns and liquor stores in the Bay area and on the peninsula during the past few months, was seen by San Mateo county law enforcement officials this week.

Stopping to investigate two negroes walking along El Camino Real in Belmont at 4:30 Sunday morning, Officer Otto Kutzer of Belmont saw a third negro drive away hurriedly in a car that had been parked nearby.

Kutzer gave chase to the car, but when he caught up with it, the driver had fled. It was registered to Richard Anderson, colored, of San Francisco, whose description tallied with that of the man driving the car. The car contained an acetylene outfit which had been stolen Saturday evening from a San Francisco business place, also two pinch bars and a flashlight.

A few minutes later a car belonging to Mrs. Dorothy Low of Belmont was stolen from her back yard, and police believe Anderson may have used it as a getaway car.

At 7 a. m. Sunday, Kutzer assisted by Officer Don Low of San Carlos and deputy sheriffs Heagney and Silverstein picked up a negro identified as David Reed, 24 year old seaman. Reed was covered with brush and straw when apprehended and was found to be carrying a large amount of money.

He was booked on a vagrancy charge, and released on bail, to appear before Judge John G. Smith for trial August 15. Reed claims to be the owner of three apartment houses in San Francisco.

Police of San Francisco and the peninsula are now investigating the status of Anderson and Reed in an effort to determine whether they can be connected with any of the numerous recent burglaries of taverns and liquor stores in this

Memorial Building Is Still Main Topic Of Interest Here

By Ted Shipley

The old Vista Grande school site, located just north of Parkview avenue, between Mission street and Santa Barbara avenue, is definitely "out" as a site for the proposed War Memorial building in Daly City, as well as for any other purpose than for erection of a new school building when one becomes needed to take care of the increased population here.

That was the statement made Wednesday afternoon of this week by George R. Augustien, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Jefferson Elementary School district, who said the trustees at a recent meeting foresaw the need of a new school here in the very near future, and decided to hold on to the old Vista Grande school property, which the school district owns, for that purpose.

Meanwhile interest in the proposed memorial is rapidly growing among local residents, A. J. Bodien, assistant chief of the Daly City Fire department said this week. "Response to our request for all interested to attend the August 29 meeting is very encouraging, and we expect to have a very large attendance," he said. "However, several organizations have not as yet turned in the names of committeemen they have appointed to attend the meeting, and we would like to have these as soon as possible."

Colma-Vista Grande aerie 1848, Fraternal Order of Eagles selected their committeemen at their regular meeting Thursday, August 9. Other organizations are expected to select committees in meetings slated for the coming week.

Most people who have expressed an opinion concerning the memorial, have expressed themselves as favoring a building of the type outlined in previous stories in the Record. In that connection, they are investigating plans of a new Legion hall which is being built in East Palo Alto.

This building, to cost $20,000, will be a one story and basement building, 40 by 80 feet. The main floor will be almost entirely utilized as an auditorium. A smaller hall 39 by 50 feet in the basement, to be used for meetings of such organizations as boy and girl scouts etc., will be flanked by several small rooms.

The local buiiding will be larger than the one being built at East Palo Alto, but is expected to be of the same design, with a large auditorium on the main floor, suitable for use as a dance floor by such organizations as the Daly City firemen, for large meetings of city-wide nature, basketball games, indoor boxing and wrestling matches, etc., and a basement containing smaller rooms for meeting places of small groups, offices, etc.

However, there doesn't seem to be any agreement as yet on the site for the building. Proponents of the Marchbanks park site and the old Daly City Quarry property are still arguing hotly over respective merits of their choices.

So—question of a site for the memorial appears now to be a tossup. And it looks as if time and effort used to attend the August 29 meeting, will be well spent. It will be at the City hall at 8 p. m.

Miss Ida Cox Becomes Bride Of Edgar L. Jones

A candlelight ceremony performed by Reverend William H. Harberts united Miss Ida Cox of Westwood, California, and electrican's mate first class, Edgar Lee Jones, of Greensboro, North Carolina, in marriage Thursday, August 2 at 4 p. m. The ceremony was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wagers, 464 Bellevue avenue.

The bride, who formerly made her home at the above address, was given away by Mr. Wagers. She was dressed in white and carried an orchid. The bridesmaid, Miss Frances Brown was dressed in blue. Best man duties were performed by D. B. Steed, the groom's best friend, who also is from Greensboro, North Carolina.

Parents of the groom were unable to attend, but the bride's mother and relatives, as well as friends, were in attendance.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home which was delightfully decorated in white astors and stock.

The couple will return to North Carolina following their honeymoon up north in Lassen park.

Ernest Brooks And Grayce Hogan To Wed, August 11

Saturday evening, August 11, at 6 o'clock, Ernest Brooks, proprietor of the Daly City Cleaners, 6274 Mission street will wed Grayce S. Hogan of 263 Arch street, San Francisco. Nuptial ceremonies will be performed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Smith, 615 Vernon way, Burlingame. Dr. and Mrs. Smith will act as best man and matron of honor for the couple.

The bride's wedding costume will be a gray suit with ice blue trimming.

No honeymoon plans have been announced.

Young Baby Severely Scalded While In Bathtub

John Draper, 20 months old baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Farrell Draper, 53 Alexander avenue, was scalded so severely about the middle of the body and on both feet just before 6:30 p. m., Monday evening, August 6, that the attending physician said Tuesday there still were grave possibilities the burns might prove to be fatal.

The youngster was seated in the bathtub, and when his mother's attention was distracted for a moment, accidentally turned on the hot water. The water, scalding hot, burned the middle of the body so badly that the skin was lost in about 90 per cent of the surface burned. In addition, the boy suffered a third degree burn on the right foot to the ankle, and the left foot to the ankle was also severely burned.

Answering the phone call to the local police department by the frantic mother, Officer Dean Wood sped to the scene in the local ambulance. Dr. William C. Lynch was also called, and he ordered the youngster taken to Mary's Help hospital. Wood and Mrs. Draper took him to that hospital in Daly City police car 366, as warm transportation was needed.

Tuesday, Dr. Lynch said that while it was too early at that time to definitely determine the youngster's chances for recovery, he said that at the best, he would be confined to the hospital for ten days or two weeks.

Wednesday evening, a member of the family stated the boy was some better, and appeared to be on the way towards recovery at that time.

Tax Association Warns Against Top-heavy Budgets

County and school budgets and tax rates this year are affected by a larger than usual variety of factors, California Taxpayers' association said today, pointing out some problems which local governing boards must solve before tax rates are fixed by September 1.

On the one hand, assessed values are up in many communities, with every cent of tax rate levied bringing in more money. In some places balances are up because budgets for last year were too high. Most elementary school districts will receive good-sized increases in state aid; in addition, an increase in attendance automatically brings an increase in state money to the school district the next year.

On the other hand, some school districts are faced with increases in enrollments. Counties face increased demands for old age aid, but the county share is only 10 per cent of the maximum aid provided. The increase in aid to the blind will add slightly to county costs. The legislature's unemployment relief program reduces a major county worry.

Salary and construction demands are large problems. In many places, capital outlay budgets for the last few years have been small. Salary budgets have been greatly increased. Now, some places find it necessary to set up larger budgets for construction, which may get the blame for tax increases, when the increase is in part the result of high salary levels.

"Where tax rates are reduced, or even held to last year's level, citizens should give local governing boards full credit for having successfully resolved a mass of factors pulling in different directions," the association said. "Where tax rates threaten to go up, citizens should satisfy themselves immediately that the increases are justified."

Norry Bears Take Close Win

Although securing nine hits to their opponents three, Bear Photos A's, managed by Charlie Norry, barely managed to squeeze out a 4 to 3 victory over Hunters Point Dolphins in a San Francisco Recreation Department league game at Jackson diamond Sunday afternoon.

Shortstop Perez collected three of the Bear Photo hits and scored two of their runs. Third baseman Keating and right fielder Quinones chalked up two hits each for the winners. Shortstop Bishop, first baseman Kidd and left fielder Johnson divided the losers' three hits.

San Carlos Must Wait For Postoffice Says Congressman

San Carlos will have to wait until after the war to secure federal aid in erecting a new postoffice, Congressman Jack Z. Anderson this week notified Mrs. Mary K. Davis, San Carlos postmistress, in answer to a letter from her, in which she pointed out that heavy increase in annual receipts has caused the postoffice to outgrow its present quarters.

Anderson said the only means by which San Carlos might hope to secure a new postoffice building before that time, is to have some private builder erect one, and lease it from him, as is now being done at San Bruno.

In her letter to Congressman Anderson, Mrs. Davis predicted the San Carlos office would become a first class postoffice by January 1, 1946. Already this year, the office has handled more than half the necessary $40,000 annual receipts needed to boost the rating from second class to first class. Fifteen persons are now employed there.

Mrs. Malling is the former Maren Nelson and is making her home with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Nelson, 339 Willits street while her husband is in the service. At present he is stationed in San Diego.

Mrs. Astrid Malling of Seattle, Washington, the baby's other grandmother has been visiting and helping Mrs. Nelson in the care of the only grandchild on both sides of the family.

Longshoremen Take 15 to 8 Win From Bear Photos

Sunday evening at Marchbanks park, Manager Harry Maloney of the Longshoremen jubilantly proclaimed, "Bring on the best teams of the Bay area. I'm ready for them now."

His team, greatly strengthened by the addition of southpaw pitching Sgt. Ronnie De La Hunt, catcher Jenkins, and outfielders Bob Gilbert and Miller of the San Francisco Marines had just finished taking a 15 to 8 slugfest from Johnny Maretti's Bear Photo Service nine.

Longshoremen paced by De La Hunt, who collected three singles in five times at bat, and Gilbert who poled a long two run home run to deepest left field in the seventh inning, cracked a total of 20 hits off Bobby Peret of the Bears, most of them in the last half of the game when they scored 11 of their runs.

Meanwhile, De La Hunt, coasting along under an ever increasing lead provided by his mates, was nicked for 16 hits by Bear Photo batters. However, Ronnie showed he could bear down if he had to, by striking out 11 batters, mostly at times when the bases were bulging with Bear players.

The game, which provided plenty of excitement for the two or three hundred fans, was close for the first half. Longshoremen broke the scoring ice with three runs after two were out in the second.

Jenkins started the splurge by securing a walk and stealing second. De La Hunt singled to score his battery mate. Mike Dalton prodded a double down the right field foul line that put De La Hunt on third, and Eddie Rose brought them in with a center field single.

Five hits including a double by Fred Falconi and two walks put the Bears ahead 4 to 3 in the first half of the fifth, but the Longshoremen tied it up in their half, when Gilbert walked and circled the bases on "Lefty" Fieber's single and two errors.

The Longshoremen went ahead to stay in the sixth when they netted five runs on singles by De La Hunt, Guglimetti, Fieber, Spina, Miller and Jenkins and an outfield error.

The Bears came back with two in the seventh, and the Longshoremen promptly scored three in their half. Gilbert's home run behind Galarza's single accounted for the first two, and Frank Guglimetti brought in the other when he doubled, went to third on Peret's wild throw to catch him off second, and stole home.

Two more Bears circled the bases in the eighth, and the Longshoremen again scored three in their half, when all the utility men broke into the lineup. Ray White batted for Jenkins and singled—De La Hunt came up with his third hit—Denk batting for Dalton also one based and old Jawn McGraw himself (Maloney) (added insult to injury when he batted in place of Gilbert and pried out another single.

Rival managers Maloney and Maretti stirred up plenty of excitement and Umpire Rock found himself in a spot on two occasions. First was when a youngster in front of the Bear Photo dugout picked up an overthrow of third base that appeared headed for the dugout and handed it to one of the Bear fielders. Maloney argued it was a blocked ball and two runners should be permitted to advance one base each, but Rock refused to see it that way.

Rock again got into hot water, this time with Bear Photo players when he first ruled a long drive by Frank Guglimetti to center field an out, then reversed his decision. From the stands, it looked as if center fielder Miliani of the Bears got his hands on the drive but dropped it as he slipped and fell. Manager Maretti of the Bears and his players contended Miliani completed the catch, but again the umpire disagreed.

Report Hold-up Near Lake Merced To Local Police

As J. H. Jones of 368 Vista Grande avenue and a lady companion were seated in Jones' automobile parked on a side road near Lake Merced Tuesday night, August 7, they were held up by a shoeless bandit who went through Jones' wallet and the lady's purse, and finally took the wallet containing his driver's license, 3 A gas ration coupons, union card and draft card. No money was obtained.

Jones reported the holdup to local police at 3:07 a. m. Wednesday morning. He said the bandit was blonde, light complexioned, weighed between 150 and 160 pounds, was about five feet, seven inches tall and apparently 25 or 26 years old. He talked with a southern drawl.

Jones told the police the bandit carried his shoes in one hand and had the other in his pocket as if he carried a gun, but no gun was seen during the robbery. Afterwards the man walked into the bushes at the roadside. No automobile was seen by Jones or his companion.

Local police furnished San Francisco police a complete report of the holdup.

Klassen Resigns As City Engineer For San Carlos

Robert A. "Bob" Klassen last week tendered his resignation as city engineer to the city council—but it was in San Carlos, not Daly City.

The rift between Klassen and San Carlos councilmen comes as a result of conflict between them regarding the proposed Laurel street extension in that city. In tendering his resignation to the San Carlos council, Klassen indicated he would not attend any more council meetings there, nor would be reconsider the resignation in case the councilmen failed to accept it. However, he indicated he was willing to meet with the councilmen some other night of the week when there was sufficient time to discuss matters thoroughly.

Klassen has been city engineer of San Carlos for the past five years, and was assistant city engineer from the time the city was incorporated. He is also city engineer of Daly City and Belmont. At one time he held that position in eight different peninsula communities at the same time.

Many Attend Air Program At Mills Field

More than 15,000 people attended the Air Force Day program at Mills Field Wednesday, August 1, celebrating the birthday anniversary of the Army Air Forces Parked cars lined the highway for more than a mile on each side of the field.

Army air forces, with the aid of members of the Red Cross and Civil Air Patrol staged a show of planes and air equipment with exhibitions lasting from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Some of the planes shown were B-24 Liberator, B-17 Fortress, B-25 Mitchell, B-26 Marauder, P-38 Lightning, P-51 Mustang, P-61 Black Widow, C-37 Skytrain, C-54 Skymaster, CG4 Hadrian Glider. Some of the planes were open for public inspection.

Another feature of the day's program was an exhibit of air equipment including aviation engineer equipment, bulldozers, planking steel, landing mats, booby traps, incendiary bombs, smoke bombs, aircraft wearing apparel, gasmasks, and cut-out bombs of different kinds.

Grand Jury Foreman In Freak Accident

Glenn O. Smallcomb, foreman of the San Mateo Grand Jury and well-known Burlingame automobile dealer suffered shock and severe bruises in a freak accident while hunting in the Livermore hills Sunday. Fortunately he escaped more serious injuries and is expected to resume his vacation within a few days.

Smallcomb had just shot a buck and was riding up an incline toward his quarry when a branch of a tree threw him from his horse. The startled animal reared and in coming down stepped on Smallcomb's chest. Field glasses carried by him broke the impact of the horse's hoof.

Smallcomb was taken to Mills Memorial hospital for emergency treatment and was later taken to his home.

To Spend Week At Costello Home

A week with the Costello family of Hollywood is being anticipated by sound motion picture technician first class, William Degliantoni, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Degliantoni, 32 Shakespeare street, who returned home Saturday, August 4 for 30 days leave.

Five years in the Navy, Bill spent the last 26 months in New Guinea and the Philippines arranging entertainment and recreation for men serving in that area.

Bill is entitled to wear the Defense Ribbon, Philippine Liberation, Asiatic-Pacific, Atlantic, and American Theatre of War Ribbons.

His trip from the Philippines to Pearl Harbor was made via plane; the remainder of the journey by boat.

Naval Drydocks To Be Open for Public Inspection

War damaged and repair units of the mighty Pacific Fleet will be open for public inspection for the first time in history at the Naval Drydocks, Hunters Point, ono Sunday, August 12, it was announced recently by Captain N. L. Rawlings, USN, commanding officer.

The Navy Department has authorized an "open house" at the 500-acre navy ship repair yard for public visiting at Hunters Point.

In a statement released to press and radio, Rear Admiral M. S. Tisdale, USN, Commandant of Mare Island Navy Yard and Hunters Point, said "The Navy wants the public in the Bay Area to see the magnificent job the civilian workers of the Navy are doing on battle-damaged and travel worn warships of the fleet that is beating Japan to its knees."

Commenting on plans for the visitors' day at Hunters Point, Captain Rawlings who heads that activity under Admiral Tisdale's command, stated, "Without the help of the workers in navy repair yards, such as Hunters Point, Mare Island and other yards, it is doubtful if our Pacific successes would today be a reality. The relationship between the repair yards and the battlefront is direct and vital.

"I believe that nothing can tell more forcefully the story of the battle of Okinawa and Japan than the damaged ships which come back to the States for repair. We at Hunters Point welcome the opportunity of having the public view these ships and see a growing naval establishment where they are repaired within the city limits of San Francisco," said Captain Rawlings.

No parking will be permitted inside the yard, but shuttle buses will be available to connect the yard with parking spaces on the approaches to Hunters Point. No food service will be available.

The U. S. Naval Drydocks, Hunters Point, an annex to the Navy Yard, Mare Island, is a 500-acre ship repair yard capable of handling all sizes of ships from submarines to the largest battleship. Its facilities include six drydocks, one of which can receive the largest vessel afloat. There are extensive piers and berthing facilities, many acres of repair shops, houses for service personnel and three non-profit cafeterias.

GIRL SCOUTS REPORT ON CAMP TRIP

Seventy-eight Girl Scouts of Daly City and Colma, accompanied by 18 adults, spent an enjoyable week at Camp Monte Toyon July 28 to August 4. Camp Monte Toyon is located in the tall redwoods, one and a half miles from Aptos, California.

The party left Jefferson Union High school at 8 a. m. Satrday morning, July 28 and arrived at Camp Monte Toyon just before noon.

At camp, the girls divided in groups, each having a distinctive name such as beavers, chipmunks, squirrels, pioneers, wolverines, etc. Each group leader took the name of a bird, by which she was called during the stay at camp. These group and leader names will be used at Camp Mattrup, the day camp east of Colma which will be open two days a week during August.

Activities at Monte Toyon included hikes, nature craft, splatter and finger painting, charcoal sketching, hand crafts, dramatics, and folk dancing. The girls made many nice souvenirs which they brought home with them as remembrances of a happy week at camp.

Many of the girls slept outside in true Girl Scout camping fashion, and enjoyed it very much.

The party returned from camp Saturday, August 4, at 2 p. m. full of eager chatter about their happy week and eagerly looking forward to next year's camp.

Henry Nelson Succumbs At Home

Henry Nelson succumbed at his home at 3:35 a. m. Wednesday, August 8 from a heart attack. He had been ill at various times but very seldom was absent from work.

He was the husband of Mrs. Mattie Nelson, father of Mrs. Elsie Hesselein of Daly City, Mrs. Velba Doyle of San Francisco, Joseph Nelson of San Francisco and Dean Nelson who resides with his mother at 133 South Parkview avenue, grandfather of Barbara and Carole Hesselein and Timothy Doyle.

The Nelson family has resided at 133 South Parkview avenue for 18 years.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p. m., Friday, August 10 at the W. C. Lasswell and company chapel, 6154 Mission street, followed by interment at Mt. Olivet Memorial park.

OPA Warns Purchasers of Rental Properties

Prospective purchasers of home rental property were warned by the rent division of the Office of Price Administration today to check with their nearest OPA area rent office to learn whether the rents as purported by the seller checked with the rent registration figures of OPA.

In many recent cases, Henry A. Cross, San Francisco District Rent executive of the OPA said today, new landlords have bought rental property in good faith, only to discover later that the maximum legal rentals for their flats, apartments or other dwelling units were lower than had been represented by the former owner.

"In such cases," Cross said, "the new owners have been subject to treble damages for overcharging simply because they overlooked checking the maximum rentals on the registration statement when they purchased the property.

"Some sellers register property just before they sell it, in many cases at a high rent. These rents are subject to reduction by the OPA after the new owner takes over and retroactive refunds may be ordered.

"A new owner who continues the overcharge practice of a former owner is violating the rent regulations and subject to treble damage.

"The safe procedure is for a new or prospective purchaser to visit his area rent office to check the registration and to see whether any other proceedings with reference to the property are pending."

Verbal Warfare Breaks Loose At County Courthouse

Another verbal warfare has broken loose in San Mateo county courthouse circles, this time between County Executive Frederick Peterson on the one hand, and Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch and District Attorney Gilbert D. Ferrell on the other.

The present battle of words may result in the San Mateo county charter being studied and revised to iron out seeming inconsistencies in power granted the county executive and board of supervisors. This possibility was seen when Dr. Cottrell, professor of political science at Stanford University and "father" of the county charter in commenting on the present situation said, "The charter as it stands is contradictory and should be studied by an impartial group."

Peterson fired the opening round in the present battle last week when he charged he was being "stymied" in performance of his duties by the supervisors and district attorney's office. They had refused to allow him the full powers granted him by the charter, he said.

Peterson cited an opinion by Attorney General Robert W. Kenny that under charter rulings, the county executive shall carry out administration, while the supervisors are limited to legislation and policy-fixing.

Replying to the county executive's charges, Hatch said, "Peterson would like to run the county like a dictator. He doesn't live up to the charter—only those parts that suit him." Hatch said the supervisors are governed in their view of the county executive's functions by a code of procedure passed as a charter amendment, and which Peterson refuses to recognize.

He said Kenny's opinion conflicts with an opinion by the district attorney and said his oath of office as a supervisor requires him to accept the latter opinion.

Colma Fire Dept. Celebrate At Annual Banquet

Approximately 20 members and their wives participated in the annual banquet given by the Colma Volunteer Fire department, Saturday evening, August 4 at the Liberty hall, El Camino Real.

Arrangements for the gala affair were handled by Til Conserva, Pat Bollentini, Louis Gianni, Les Balestra, and Paul Giusti.

The delicious dinner was served on tables attractively decorated in red and white.

Following the dinner dancing was enjoyed by all with music furnished by Ed Bocci and George Riccomi, accordionists; and Al Lagomarsino, drummer.

Speeches wede made by Pete L. Peterson, treasurer for the organization, and Pete Valente, one of the first members of the department which was organized in 1925.

Recently elected officers of Emydian Institute, YLI, No. 154, were installed at a public ceremony Tuesday evening, July 24 with Mrs. Madelyn McKlam, institute deputy, as installing officer and Miss Margaret Dunn as installing marshal.

The newly elected officers are as follows: Imelda Laramie, president; Mary Belli, past president; Joyce Veit, first vice-president; Betty O'Keefe, second vice-president; Veronica Ryan, recording secretary; Eda Giusti, financial secretary; Jean Belli, treasurer; Mary DeNegri, marshal; Gertrude Stanghellini, inside sentinel; La Verne Merlo, outside sentinel; Rosemary Flanagan, Louise Olcese, and Lenore Varni, trustees.

Chairman of the installation committee was Mrs. Lenore Varni and co-chairman Mrs. Inez Michelli.

Puppet Shows Ancient

Puppet shows are old in history. China and India are both credited with their origin. India has this evidence: the word for stage manager in ancient Sanskrit was "thread-holder."

First Kentucky Derby

The first Kentucky Derby was run in May, 1875. Aristides won the purse of $2,850 before a gallery of 10,000 people.

Dr. Gans Warns Of Typhoid Rever

San Mateo County Health Director Dr. Charles C. Gans has issued a warning to any San Mateo county residents who may have eaten at the International Kitchen restaurant in Niles since the middle of June, and have suffered from stomach or digestive disorders since, to go to their physicians for a check for possible typhoid fever.

A recent outbreak of typhoid fever in the Niles area has been traced to a person employed at the restaurant at that time, Gans said.

"OFF THE BLOTTER"

Frank Shirado of 335 Miriam street, reported to local police Tuesday night, August 7 at 11:40 p. m. that some one had taken the headlights off his car while it was parked on Flournoy street, back of the Daly City theatre, earlier that night.

* * *

Just before midnight Monday, August 6, Henry C. Christiansen of 195 Moltke street, reported to local police the loss of his wallet, containing his driver's license, draft card and other valuable papers.

Officer Edward Beecher of the local police department took Ray Rahill of San Bruno to Alemany hospital for emergency treatment Sunday, August 5 at 10:20 a. m., after he had gone to the local station and reported he had injured his right hand.

Hospital attendants found the injuries slight, so that Rahill was able to return to the "top of the hill" after treatment.

* * *

Seven year old David Valencia of 182 Los Banos avenue cut his forehead on a nail in a fall Monday evening shortly after 6 o'clock. He was taken to Alemany hospital by Officer James Welsh of the local police department for emergency treatment after which he was returned to his home.

Paint Splashes Remedy

When painting or varnishing rub vaseline on the hinges and doorknobs to prevent splashes of paint from sticking. Rub it off when the job is finished.

The Land of Little Sticks

The section of land on the western side of the Hudson bay was called by the Indians, "the land of little sticks," because of low forest growth.

Soak Clothes Overnight

While it is advisable to remove perspiration from clothes, and it can be done by soaking overnight, this is not advisable, as clothes should be watched as they are soaking.

Home of Wandering Gypsies

The gypsies are scattered throughout every European country, over most of western Asia and Siberia and Egypt as well as the northern coast of Africa.

Miss Aileen Byrne Becomes Bride Of Dewey Blanton

Miss Aileen Byrne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Byrne, 39 San Pedro street, became the wife of Dewey Blanton, Crothersville, Indiana, at a ceremony performed by Father McKenna at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, Sunday evening, August 5 at 7 o'clock.

The bride-to-be was attired in a cadet blue suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. He only attendant was her sister Helen Marie Byrne who wore a dusty pink suit and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias trimmed in baby pink roses. Best man was Private First Class John Byrne, recently returned from overseas duty in the European theater.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's grandmother Mrs. J. Weber, 275 Flood avenue, San Francisco.

Some 30 friends and relatives of the couple were present to see them cut the three-tiered cake.

The couple are now making their home at 196A Santa Barbara avenue in Daly City.

Mrs. Agnes Roberson Passes Away

Mrs. Agnes Roberson, of 598 Crocker avenue, passed away at Community hospital, Tuesday, August 7.

She is the wife of William Roberson; mother of William Roberson jr. and the late Richard Roberson; and sister of Julia Jackson.

Mrs. Roberson, a resident of Daly City for the past 30 years, was a member of Court St. Mary, No 1155, CDA.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Lasswell and Company mortuary at 9 a. m. Friday morning and Our Lady of Perpetual Help church at 9:30. Burial will be at Holy Cross cemetery.

You can wear the uniform of this 155-year-old military organization — serving two six-hour watches each week guarding San Francisco's waterfront at hours of your own choosing. For full particulars apply to
